OUR PROMISE

- This consultancy service is your first port of call if you are interested in going freelance, launching a start-up or investing in one.
- We provide you with neutral, independent advice and equip with you practical knowledge that no university can teach you.
- You will benefit from the valuable experience of our coach Chris Bargholz, which will help you to avoid mistakes as an entrepreneur or investor and when dealing with start-ups. Mistakes can be costly and cause damage to your reputation.
- We help you to understand the aspects that you need to include in your pitch deck and what distinguishes a profitable business idea from a non-profitable one.
- The price includes a 60 min. coaching session, the content of which is up to you.
